VP Election Results

Members of the SRG elected Dr. Debora Heller as Vice-President

Congratulations and welcome to our committee!
Her term will commence at the conclusion of the 100th General Session of IADR

Dr. Debora Heller is a dental scientist and Adjunct Professor in Dentistry at Universidade Cruzeiro do Sul, Researcher at Hospital Israelita Albert Einstein, São Paulo, Brazil and Adjunct Professor at UT Health San Antonio, USA. She has a PhD in Oral biology from Boston University, a MBA from Universidade de São Paulo, a MSc and certificate in Periodontology from Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro and DDS from Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil. She leads the Saliva Lab, a salivary research laboratory in São Paulo, Brazil. Dr. Heller's studies go from comprehensive salivary biomarker identification for diseases such as breast cancer to the development of an innovative approach to analyze Brazilian first division soccer players' performance through saliva. Debora's scientific dissemination instagram called "@adentistacientista" has over 20k followers.

Interested to also get involved in the SRG?

All Scientific Groups/Networks elect a VP each year. IADR will send out a call for elections in February 2022. This is an exciting opportunity to become involved at the heart of our group, to influence and help shape its direction. Feel free to nominate yourself! Nominations will be taken by emailing the SRG president: d.jager@amsterdamumc.nl

Chengdu: While many of you may know Chengdu for its cuddly giant pandas, it is one of the fastest-growing cities in southwestern China. It has a history that can be traced back 2,400 years ago when the first Shu emperor built its capital in Chengdu. With the presence of excellent irrigation systems and abundance of mineral resources, this 'Shu' place is often reputed as the 'Heavenly State'.
